Become a Friend of the Center

The Wallingford Community Senior Center (WCSC) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that serves over 2,000 seniors and community residents who participate in over 16,000 programs and activities a year. Our community includes seniors, along with their families, friends, and neighbors in north Seattle. The Center provides vital programs and services from healthy meals to social services to helping seniors access needed resources. There are computer classes, programs that promote health and wellbeing, and perhaps most important of all, the Center is a place for seniors to connect with friends and community.

An important sign of a healthy community is its commitment to caring for its elders. We invite you to show that you care by becoming a Friend of the Center. By supporting WCSC you enrich the community by creating a warm and welcoming place for seniors. Your support means a lot!

Friends of the Center receive these benefits:

- Subscription to our quarterly newsletter, The Sunnysider
- Weekly e-news to let you know what's happening at the Center
- Discounts on WCSC programs
- Satisfaction of helping an important local institution thrive
